Jury , Gets Case Red Martin Awaits Fate

The fate of Cecil B. "Red" Martin, accused slayer in the Ashville "shallow grave" murder, was placed in the hands of a Franklin County jury at 10:25 a. m. Tuesday.

The trial went to the sixman, six-woman jury following a half-hour jury charge by Criminal Court Judge Dana F. Reynolds.

Judge Reynolds said there are five possible verdicts that the jury could return in the death of 58-year-old Theodore B. White of Columbus. The jury's possible decisions, the judge said, ranged from complete acquittal to a death verdict of guilty of first degree murder.

The first half hour after court reconvened at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday was taken up by the state's closing arguments delivered by Franklin County Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett.

BUC OFFICIALS said employment was down one percent from March, 1949. The second quarter payroll, however, was .2 percent below the first quarter of the same year.

Although covered employment was nearly seven percent below June, 1948, the payroll was only two percent under that for the same quarter of 1948. Counter to the statewide pattern, however, wholesale and retail trade, and finance, insurance and real estate reported higher employment and payrolls. Utilities and service industries had higher payrolls, despite lower employment, BUC officials reported.

BUC OFFICIALS said employment was down one percent from March, 1949. The second quarter payroll, however, was .. percent below the first quarter of the same year.

Although covered employment was nearly seven percent below June, 1948, the payroll was only two percent under that for the same quarter of 1948. Counter to the statewide pattern, however, wholesale and retail trade, and finance, insurance and real estate reported higher employment and payrolls. Utilities and service industries had higher payrolls, despite lower employment, BUC officials reported.

PARTY TIDAL WAVES

IN THE course of discussion in the Senate of the proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the electoral college, the remark was made that it is difficult to change a state's traditional political alignment. This used to be true to a greater extent than it is today. Under the electoral college system, some states for long periods might as well not have bothered with the formality of elections, as the recipients of their blocks of votes were never in

Although some states still continue to run faithfully in the columns of one party or the other, with rare defections, the tendency now is toward more change. New York, Massachusetts, Illinois and California used to be Republican states, yet in the Roosevelt years all went Democratic, and all but New York voted in 1948 for President Truman. After World War I the Democratic victories of 1912 and 1916 were more than wiped out by the overwhelming Republican triumphs of 1920, 1924 and 1928. Such tremendous victories would have meant a generation of success for the G.O.P. if state alignments of those years had held firm. As every one knows, these three Republican tidal waves were followed by five Democratic victories, four of them by electoral margins larger than any Republican triumph.

These Days

The most remarkable fact about the recent British election is that it took place at all. The right of a people to select and change their government is at the heart of the concept of representative government That right has violently been disappearing throughout the world. It could disappear everywhere and therefore it is important that elections should be taken seriously. Apparently, the British people took theirs

In the Soviet countries, elections do take place. But the people have no choice. One list of names is presented to them and they are required to vote on that or be imperrilled as enemies of the state. And that could mean death. Theirs is not a free

The right of a people to choose their own government is unusual in history. Most governments have been established by force, by seizure, by the establishment of a self-perpetuating ruling group, either in the form of an hereditary monarchy or a dictatorship by an oligarchy or, as in the case of the Soviet states, a one-party dictatorship, leading to the deification of an overpowering ruthless man, Stalin.

The Communist party has been in complete power in Russia 32 full years. No opposition party has ever been tolerated. Even within the Communist Party, no opposition is tolerated by those in control. Those who differ die. No greater crime exists than to be a deviationist, by which is meant anyone who differs in any respect.

The British election is very different from ours. British political parties are membership organizations. That is not true in this country. No one is a member of the Republican Party or the Democratic Party. As a matter of fact, those who associate themselves with these parties have little voice in their management. The party in power is nationally controlled by the president-in-office; the party-out-of-power has a diversity of control, by the chairman of its national committee, by the leaders in the Senate and House, and by prospective candidates for the presidency.

The party-in-power always has many advantages, particularly the advantages of It still can be said that it is difficult to patronage and tax-paid publicity. # Senate Committee OKs $100,000 Gambling Probe

Senate Judiciary Committee has "any change in the laws of the unanimously approved the $100,- several states relative to gam-000 Kefauver resolution for a bling or any possible interferfull-fledged investigation of "or- ence with the rights of the sevganized crime."

The resolution now must have rules committee approval for expenditure of the $100,000. The resolution by Sen. Kefauver, (D) Tenn., was broadened from its initial aim to include all organized crime and the way it corrupts state and local government.

The original intention was to probe only "gambling and racketeering.'

The revised version of the legislation also has a clause protecting the gambling laws of individual states.

As approved, the resolution provides for "a full and complete study and investigation of whether organized crime utilizes the facilities of interstate commerce or otherwise operates in interstate commerce in the furtherance of any transactions which are in violation of the laws of the United States or of the individual states. ."

* * * A SUBCOMMITTEE of the judiciary committee would be authorized to probe "the manner and extent to which and the identity of persons, firms or corporations by which such utilization is being made."

That provision is expected to being such gambling figures as New York's Frank Costello before the subcommittee.

When Cadillac says / lew...

... it's / lews!

When Cadillac announces that basic changes have been made in its design, it means the Standard of the World has once again been raised.

And that, of course, is news of the first magnitude. This year, the number of Cadillac changes is far, far greater than is normally announced.

There is, of course, glamorous new beauty. All the bodies have been completely restyled and redesigned and are simply gorgeous in their line and contour.

The great new Cadillac high-compression engine has undergone a host of refinements which enhance every phase of its performance.

Road balance and handling ease are remarkably improved. Steering is easier; braking is softer; and the car's stability on turns and curves is phenomenal. Almost all the effort has been taken out of driving.

Yes-this is a Cadillac "vintage" year-when its engineering and designing and manufacturing have all produced at their superlative best.

Better come in-and come up . . . to Cadillac.

WHY SHOULD EVERY FARMER HAVE A CHECKING ACCOUNT?

Because of bad weather or farm work it may be inconvenient for you to get to town, but you can mail a check without any trouble. Also the check stubs and monthly statements from the bank will help to keep track of your expenditures.

By carrying a checking account at this bank you may enjoy the convenience and protection it affords.

Tust realize one thing, good madam, good sir-as you pilot your Buick down the highway past the parade of lesser cars, you're the secret envy of most other drivers.

So you owe it to this admiring audience to keep that wonderful Buick of yours purring at its proudest-gliding over the roughest roads like a car on a cloud, with never a squeak-lively, long-striding, and staying that way longer!

And one of the easiest ways to do that is to wheel into our shop once a month - ask the man for our LUBRICARE - and here's what will happen:

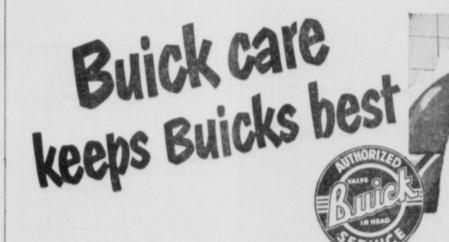

One of our trained Buick mechanics will lubricate your car as the factory engineers specify—covering many points never touched

While he goes over your Buick, he gives you an extra service only a Buick man can render. He inspects the entire car with a trained Buick eye making sure you get lubrication plus Buick care.

When you get your bill, you'll find a wonder. ful surprise - our LUBRICARE costs no more than a routine "grease job" but, man alive, what a difference it makes!

Villanova Snubs Sanity Code

VILLANOVA, Pa., Feb. 28-Villanova college authorities made it clear today that the school does not intend to fall in line with the National Cylegiate Athletic Association's "sanity code."

The Rev. Francis X. N. Mc-Guire, Villanova president, said the college will continue its present scholarship system in defiance of an NCAA edict.

Villanova, one of seven schools violating the code, boasts a boyketball team rated as a possible selection for the NCAA tournament next month.

Only 4 More Coaches To Vote For Top Player

All but four Pickaway County League coaches had cast their ballots for the Bob Bowsher Memorial Trophy winner as of Tuesday noon.

Seven of the 11 cage mentors sent in their nominations and as soon as the remaining quartet has voted, tabulation of points will be made.

The trophy goes to the one player in the county who, in the eyes of the coaches, has been the most outstanding youth on the basketball court during the 1949-50 season. The coaches vote on a basis of sportsmanship, team play and general attitude.

At the same time coaches are sending in their memorial trophy selections, they are casting ballots for the allcounty team.
